

THE SUIT CONCIERGE

Bespoke Suits in Melbourne Crafted
Around the Individual Wearing Them

A suit purchased off the rack involves compromise from the moment it comes off the hanger. Shoulders are cut for a standard frame, trousers break at a standard length and the jacket is shaped around an average silhouette no single person actually has. The result is a garment adapted to fit rather than built to fit, and the difference shows every time it is worn.

A bespoke tailor removes every one of those compromises. When a suit begins with your measurements, your posture and your preferences, the finished garment reflects the person wearing it rather than a factory template. A bespoke suit earns its place in a wardrobe and stays there for years.

Handcrafted Bespoke Tailoring from Richmond, Melbourne

The Suit Concierge is a Melbourne-based bespoke tailor operating from our Richmond studio with Hong Kong-based operations backing every garment we produce. We take over 30 precise measurements to handcraft each piece from scratch, with over 20,000 fabric choices spanning luxurious everyday options through to the most exclusive materials available. Bespoke suits, shirts, tuxedos, jackets and trousers are all available, with a standard turnaround of 4 to 6 weeks and express options from 3 weeks for clients on a tighter schedule.
